The 1967 Jacket Staff Presents

Stephenville High School is many things to many people. But to those who are close to it, whose everyday lives center around its well being, SHS is a belief in something good, something to place one's pride in and something to which one devotes his untiring efforts and enthusiasm. And out of the efforts of the many people who lay cornerstones today will evolve the even better SHS of tomorrow - in academics, in sports, and in spirit.

As we begin our pictorial record of the year, may we look back on SHS with fond memories and be able to relive and keep in our hearts the Pride and Spirit of Stephenville High School.

SHS Spirit off to Summer Start

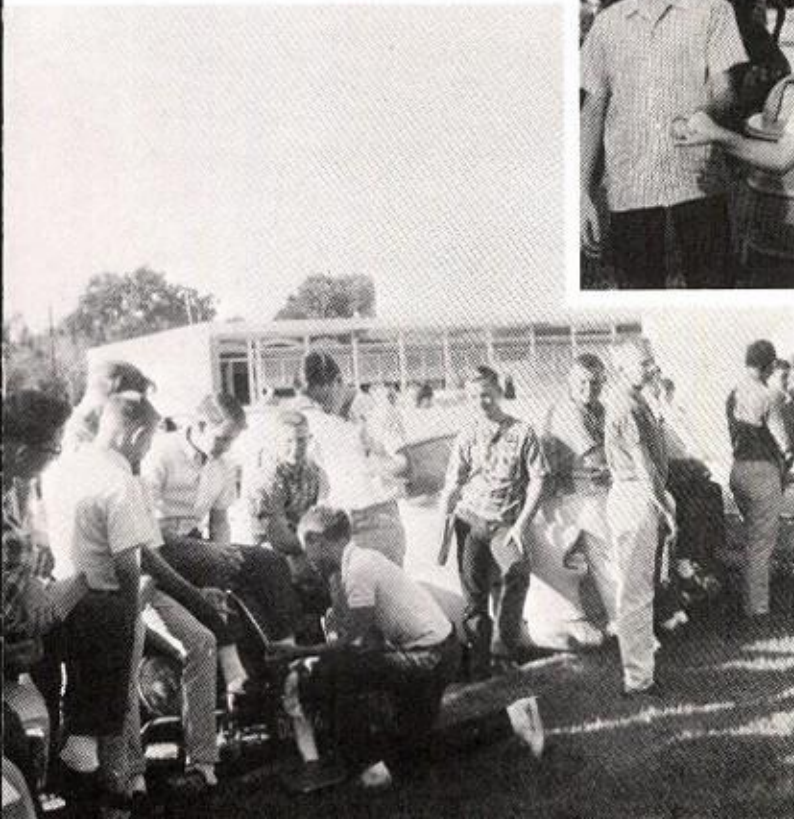

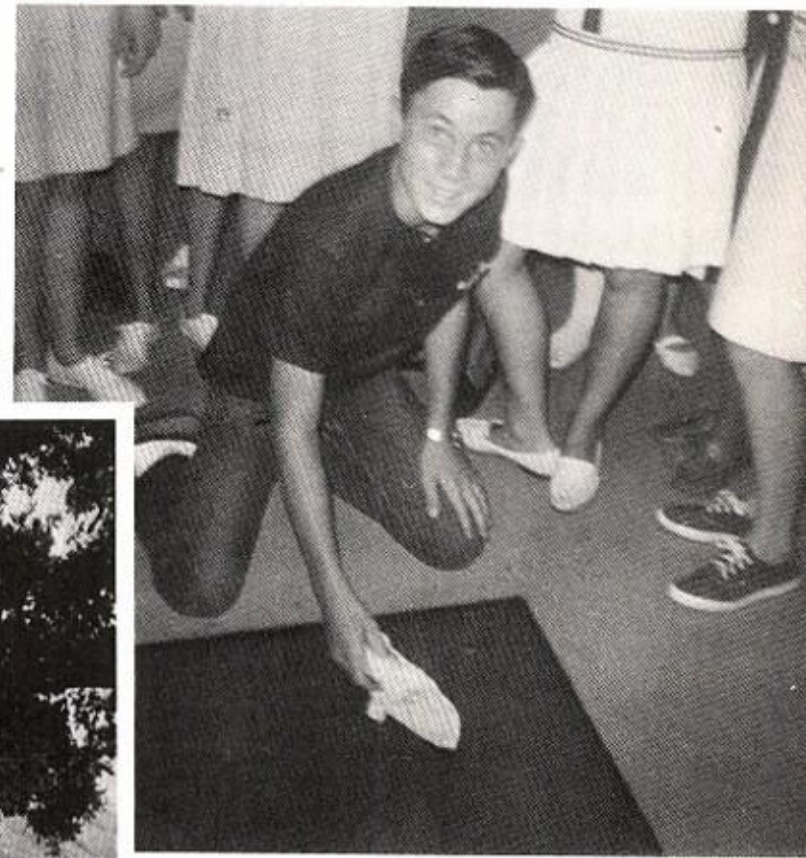

Scribble . . .
Scribble . . .
Scribble . . .
Scrimmage . . .

With the beginning of school just a few flips of the calendar away, SHS students prepare for the coming year as the Stingerettes, the Band and football boys incorporate the idea, "Practice makes perfect."

The summer scribble party enhances enthusiasm as "kids" gather to receive their "book of the year" and relive "old times" pictured in the '66 Jacket. Pre-season excitement mounts as Jackets begin "two-a-days" and have a real scrimmage. Last minute hours of summer fun are crowded into a few short hours; then on August 31, SHS'ers once again bring the traditional confusion, happiness, pride, and spirit to SHS halls.

Happiness Is... Homecoming

In the Homecoming Court are Jimmy Helm, Cindra Lewallen, Melvin Spitzenberger, Linda Hassler, Billy Tomlinson, and Freddia Trammell.

The winner is . . . Cindra!

Pure joy!!

Exes find "The Red Hearts" and a warm welcome at the Homecoming dance.

In a homecoming hurry, students celebrate special days - Spirit Day during which the "in" greeting is "Beat the 'Roos", Color Day, with everyone wearing blue and, or gold, Dress-Up Day with so many ties and heels friends are hardly recognizable, Mourning Day showing respect for a 'Roo funeral, and Quiet (?) Day with an incessant beating of the drum all day Friday. Adding icing to the cake, 1965 Queen Trina Engler crowns Cindra 1966 Homecoming Queen, and the Jackets give SHS a thrilling 18-14 victory over Weatherford.

Organizations Provide Creative Outlet

National Honor Society inducts new members at its annual banquet. Stunning (?) Varsity Jackets vie for beauty title in a very special assembly.

Highlights of other assemblies offer SHS musical entertainment and spiritual food for thought.

Campaign Combines Sincerity, and Pride, and Spirit...

To the Polls Again, Then the Count Begins

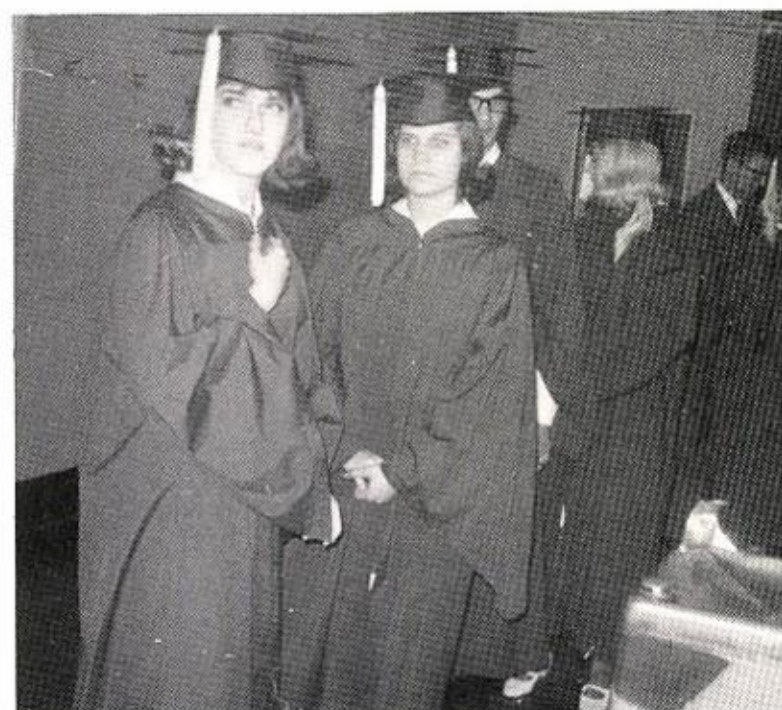

SHS Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors-to-be listen thoughtfully to Mary Jo, Bruce, Jerry, and John make their campaign promises, then cast their ballots at the May 18 Special Assembly. The votes are quickly counted, and by 11:15 John is the winner without a run-off. At 11:20, having received his opponents' and Mr. Gilbert's congratulations, John says "Thanks" to all his supporters and promises to do his best as Student Body President.

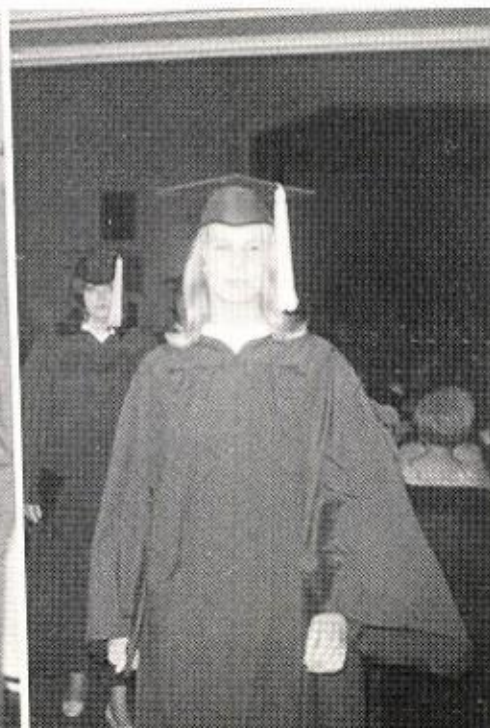

Seniors Have Their Day, May 18...

May 23...

As calendar pages flip faster and faster, Seniors grasp for those last moments with close friends . . . and finally for some . . . Graduation.

Toward the End... Come the Honors

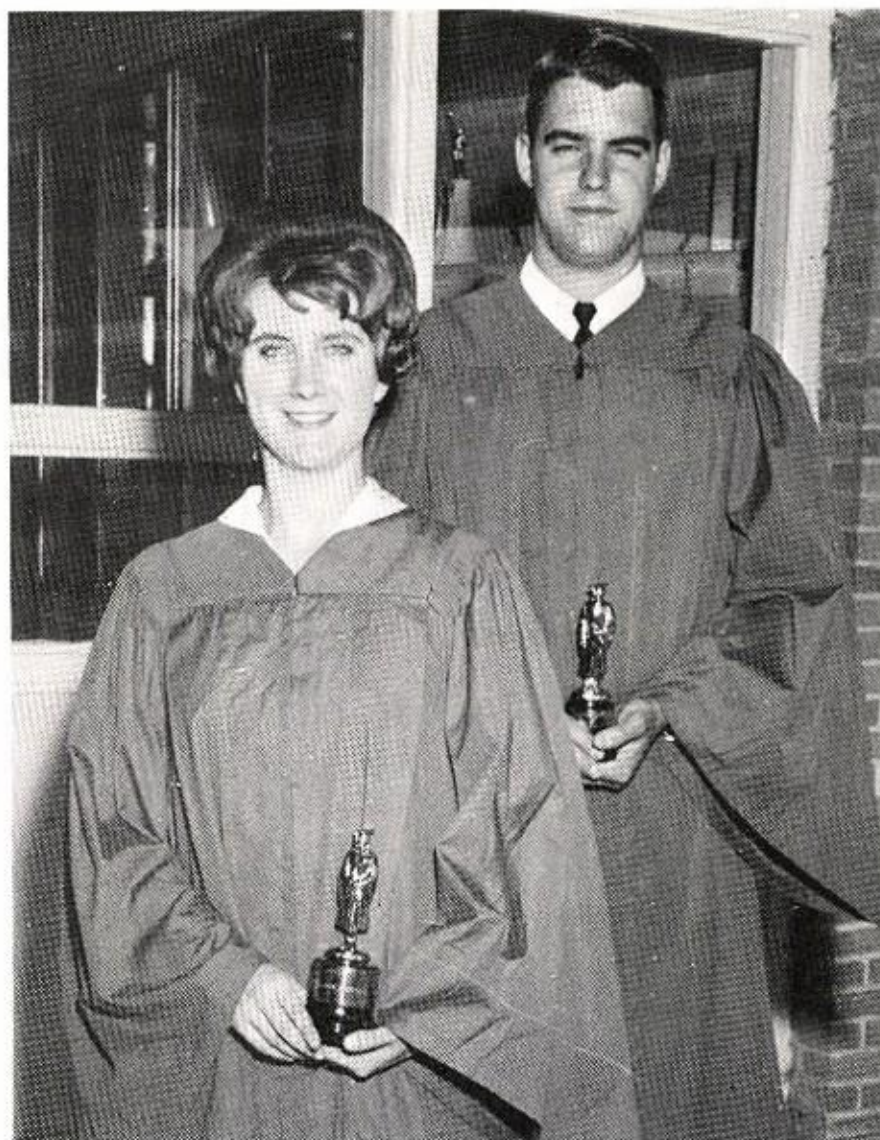

From Gary Barron to Ann Strawhorn, 40 SHS Students are CC Merit award winners, having maintained an A average in all subjects for the first five six-weeks grading periods. Each receives a certificate and a scholarship letter showing the number of years he has made all A's.

NHS names its own president, Melvin Spitzenberger, Citizen of the Year and elects Miss Gwen Williams the recipient of a one-year NEA membership to show appreciation for their teachers.

Rhonda Derrick, Karen Keeney, Lou Greenway, Sandy Bills, Judi Houston, Linda Hassler, and Sharon Stewart are FHA Girls for May, March, November, January, February, December, and April respectively. Winning the Bake-Off, Sandy is named FHA Girl of the Year at a Young Homemakers banquet honoring the girls and their mothers and receives a $25 Savings Bond. Each girl receives an engraved silver charm.

Pride and Spirit in People

People . . . THOSE WHO TEACH, our instructors, and THOSE WHO LEARN, the students . . . the heartbeat of SHS. This constitutes a learning situation. This is a school.

Classrooms and halls are associated with the animation and vitality, the pride and spirit, that only youth and the youthful can radiate. SHS people compete on the athletic field, in band and drill team performances, and in the classroom - the place where ideas are aired and desires are expressed.

Administrators aid the school's faculty and students while office personnel assist in making SHS run smoothly.

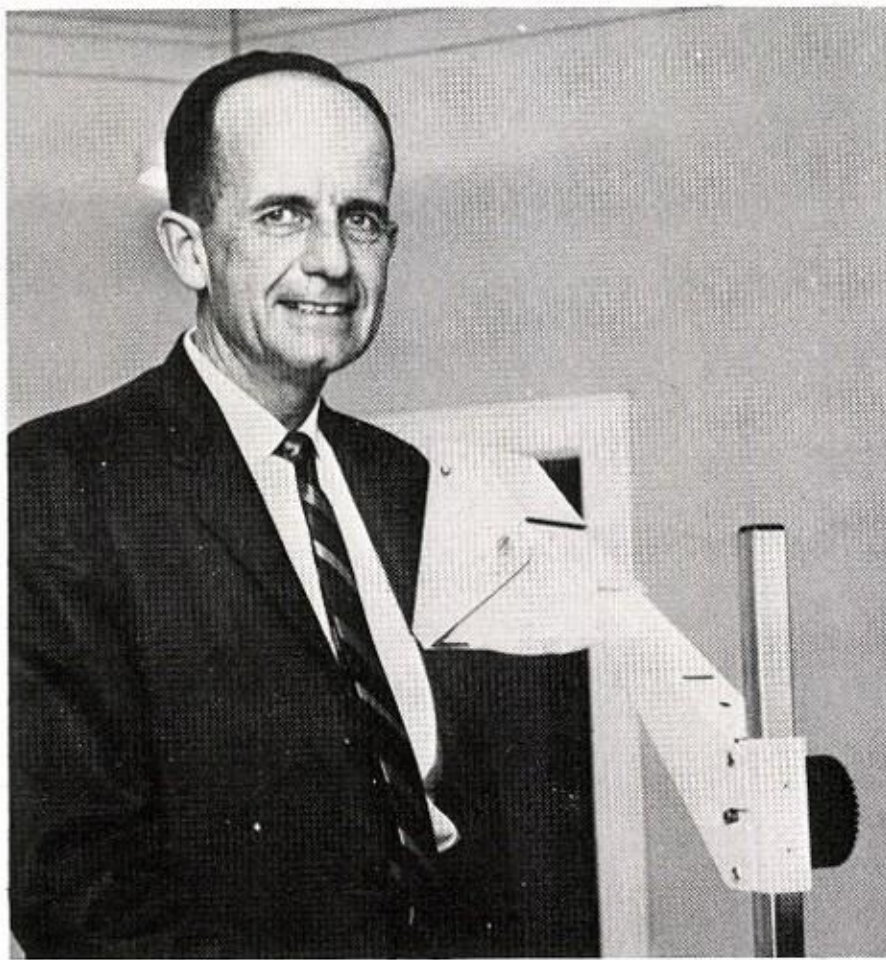

Teachers strive for answers, but had rather receive reasons, thought processes, and deductive reasoning. Something more than scholastic information - a desire for personal achievement - is part of what teachers try to instill in students going about the business of growing up.

Cooks provide lunches while custodians work to keep SHS in top shape.

Seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen crowd the halls of SHS each day.

All Administrators Working Together

Superintendent J. C. Helm, Jr.

Superintendent J. C. Helm, Jr., Stephenville's outstanding Man of the Year, as head administrator develops plans with the School Board and guides overall planning. An efficient and constantly improving school program is due to years of hard work and careful planning. The supervision of personnel and budgeting of funds are among the duties of Mr. Helm. His integrity and dependability help educational facilities to operate with ease.

Mr. Brad Thompson, Dr. Jim Whitacre, Mr. M. C. Brandon, Jr., Dr. Nathan Cedars, Mr. R. C. Ammons, Mr. Vern Pendleton, and Mr. R. E. Martin, Jr. - these busy seven men make up the Board of Education. Theirs is the task of hiring qualified personnel, endorsing expenditures for maintenance, authorizing construction of school buildings and creating a better understanding between community and school. Seven businessmen, selected by fellow citizens, seek a higher level of education for Stephenville's schools and its future citizens.

Preparing plans for growth and supervising schools and personnel consume much of the School Board's time.

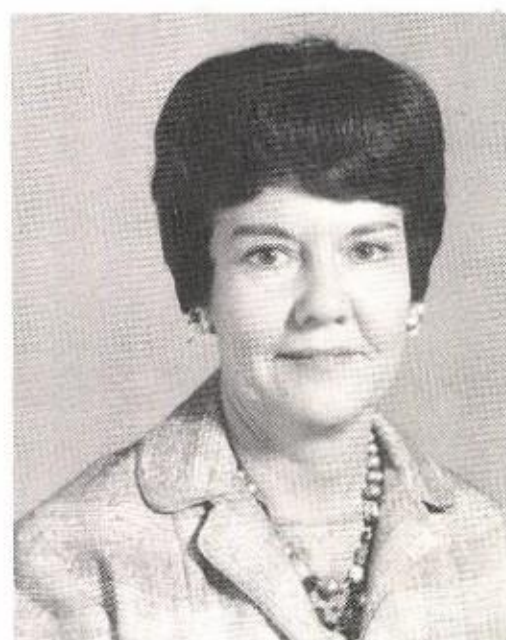

Keep S H S Running Smoothly...

Mrs. Avis Colwick

Mrs. Janice Harris

Mrs. Mae Crane

Mr. Rush McLemore and Mr. Helm discuss school taxes.

Mrs. Avis Colwick, assisted by Mrs. Janice Harris, maintains friendly efficiency in the office of the superintendent.

Office Personnel Aid School

Forming the nucleus of the daily life at SHS, office personnel cope with the various problems brought about by a wide variety of activities.

Mrs. Yvonne Moore, secretary for the offices of the principal and the counselor, is assisted by Miss Janis Helm, teachers aide.

Tactful, friendly, and understanding are a few of the adjectives which describe the characteristics of our counselor, Mr. Charles Kitchens.

National Merit scores are the topic of Mr. Kitchens' conference with Robert Justice and John McAlister.

Officials and Promote Efficiency

"One, two, three, four . . . !" Mr. Gilbert wonders whether he can ever count all those books.

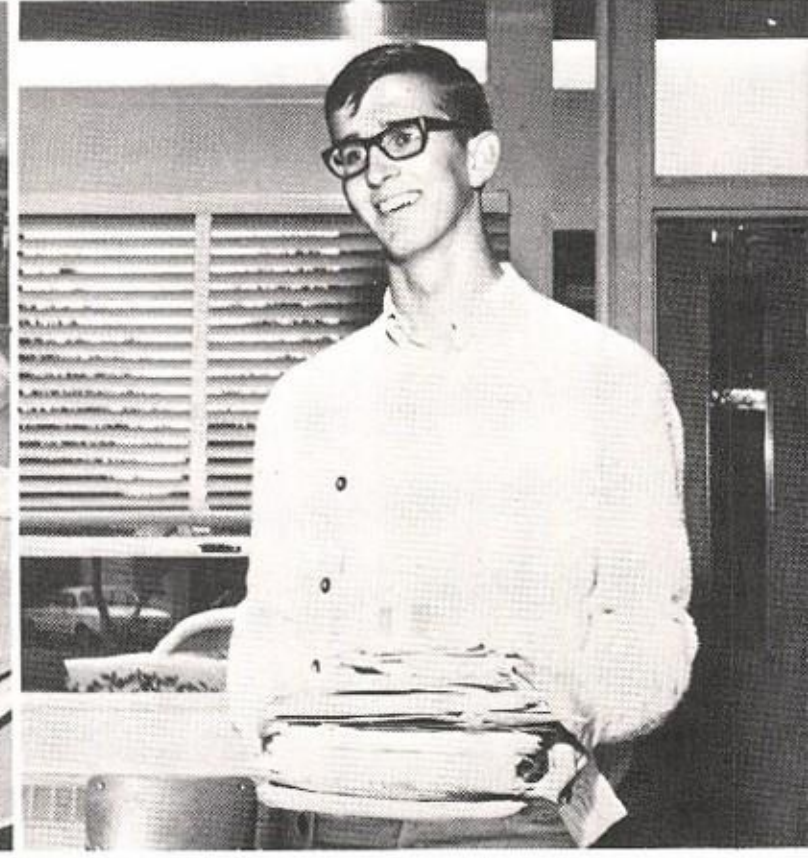

Mr. Gilbert relaxes after a busy day in his own office.

Displaying sound judgement, Mr. Gilbert serves the individuals of SHS and looks after the general welfare of the student body. He works hard to establish just, sound policies, upgrade the educational program, and encourage students to accept responsibilities on their own. Like all principals, Mr. Gilbert has had to make some "unpopular" decisions. With zeal and interest he supports any activity associated with SHS and is devoted to making this school a respected institution.

Record Enrollment Keeps Staff Hopping

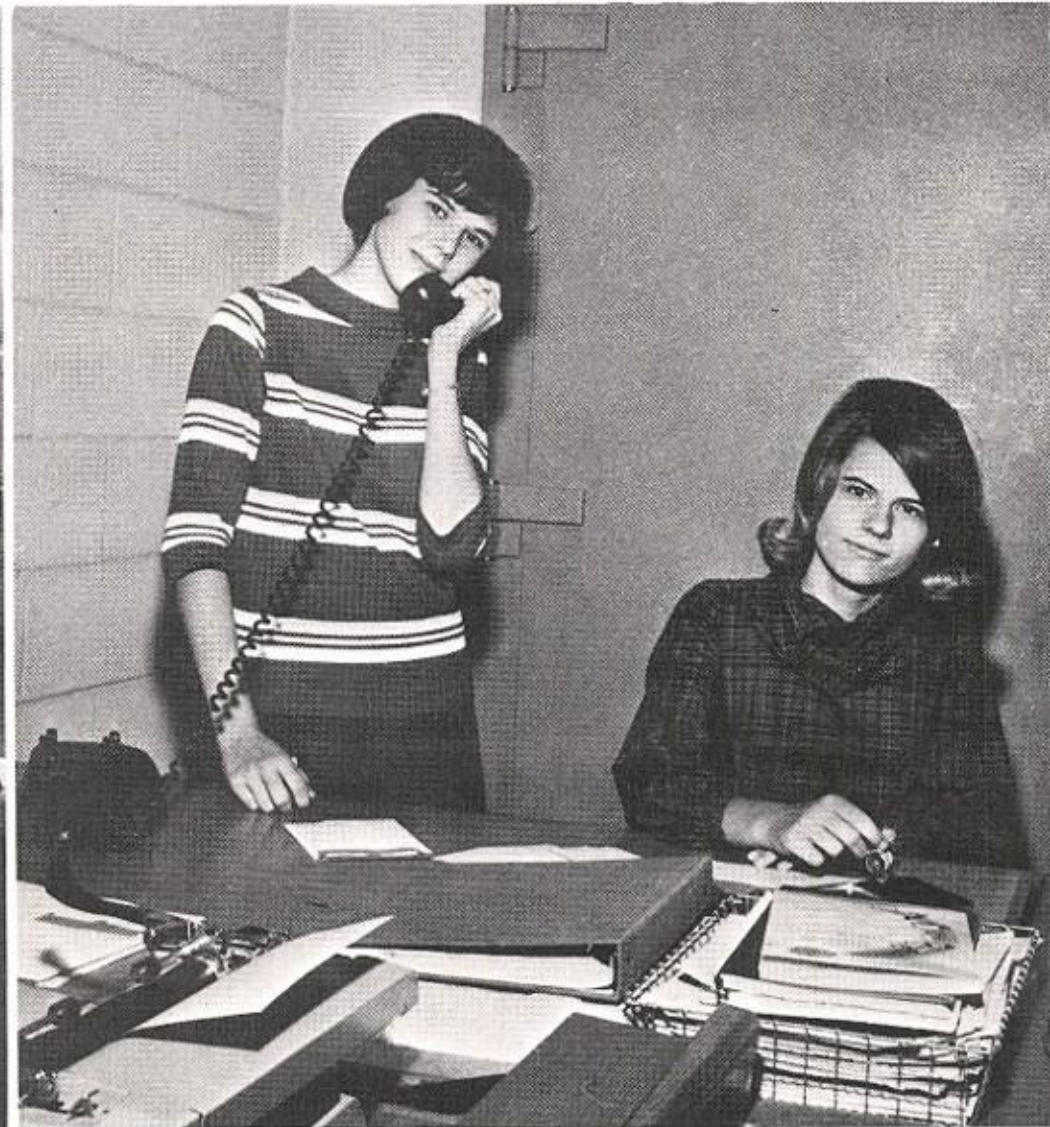

Yvonne Moore (center), secretary for the principal's office, joins Janice Harris and Avis Colwick, secretaries for Mr. Helm's office, at the school cafeteria for a coffee break.

David Bridges, SHS's mail carrier, also delivers mail to and from other schools.

Billie and Janie are busy putting mail and class cards in the teachers' boxes.

Karen takes a phone message while Marcia continues stamping the cards.

To Keep S H S "Clicking"

Joyce, Judy, and Patsy work together to check daily attendance cards, a routine duty performed each period.

Busy at the typewriter are Nika and Kathy preparing office "info."

Teresa and Suzanne learn to use the Mimeograph machine to turn out multiple copies of office materials.

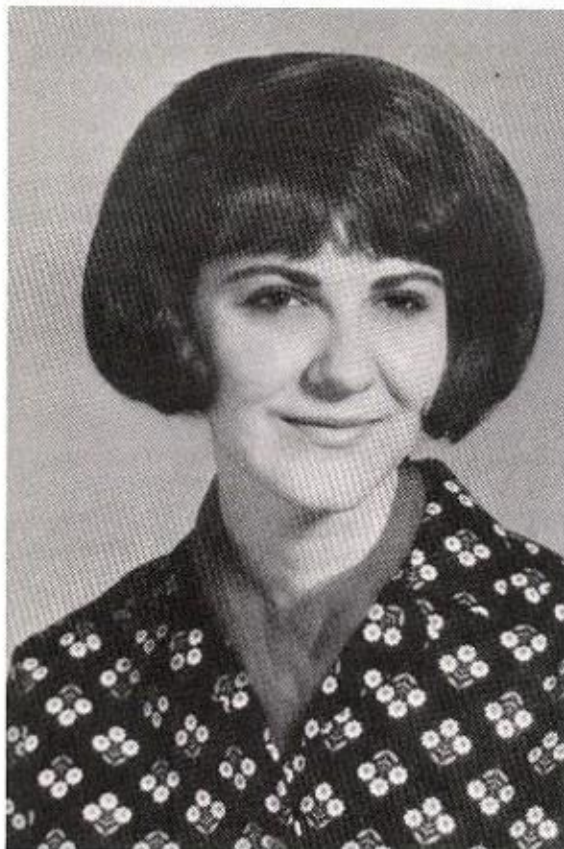

Performing another office duty, Alese, Ann, and Joyce file report cards.

en Route and at SHS

These are helpful, friendly, and busy personnel at SHS! Our custodians and lunchroom staff deserve a great deal of credit for keeping our school in such fine condition. These congenial men and women who are often called upon during the year are always reliable and willing to help.

Mechanic Bob Haggard (left) has the big responsibility of keeping eleven Stephenville I. S. D. buses ready to roll, transporting more than one hundred students distances varying from two to twenty miles to and from SHS daily as well as making "special" trips occasionally. Regular drivers are A. F. Butler, Lee Cantrell, B. B. Holloway, E. S. Keilberg, Paul Koonsman, A. M. Luttrell, E. C. Martin, R. C. Martin, C. W. Moore, E. M. Taylor, and D. M. Ward.

From Scared Kids To Scholarly Grads

From the first day of high school as scared "Fish" to sophisticated Sophs engaging in many school activities, to eager Juniors who host the Junior-Senior Crown Jewel Ball and order Senior rings, to proud Seniors leading with their pride and spirit at pep rallies, football games, basketball games, and many other school functions, the big change to scholarly grads takes place. Then on May 23 as proud, sentimental, ostentatious Seniors we don our caps and gowns and with retrospective discernment and perhaps some lamentations, we begin our conquest of the future.

Juniors return to SHS in the fall of '66 with visions of their prom to honor the class of '67 already dancing in their heads. In class meetings elected officers organize and head projects - a football concession, mum sales, rummage and bake sales, and a car wash - to earn money to finance the big event.

PSAT, scheduled by choice, offer an opportunity for Juniors to get a "sneak preview" of college entrance exams. Encountering new experiences and accepting more responsibilities, Juniors bring recognition to SHS. Nancy McCarroll serves as a Jacket cheerleader; Mary Jo Chandler is head majorette; Cathy Rampley is Stingerette Co-captain and Mary Ann Leatherwood, Lieutenant. Ronnie Hampton and Lindy Walker receive Honorable Mention All-District football honors, and Gloria Hyde earns basketball All-District honors. Janie Harwell is selected saxophonist in Brownwood's Stage Band Festival All-Star Band; Mary Ann Leatherwood wins District UIL Shorthand competition. Sandy Bills is named FHA Girl of the Year. Bruce McNellie is selected to attend the National Science Foundation Training Program at the University of Kansas; John Cunyus to attend the American Legion Boys' State and Nancy McCarroll to attend Girls' State.

The April 29 Shangri-la and ordering class rings set the stage for finals and earning the name, SHS Seniors.

Emerging from a freshman year full of happy times and work, the Sophomore Class swings full blast into a new and even better year. No longer expected to do Seniors' bidding, "Sophs" take an active part in every phase of school life. Silas Marner, Julius Caesar, and second place in the school tourney are the Sophomores very own, but spirit contests, sports and work of all kinds add to the Sophomores' year as the Sophomores add to the year for the whole student body of SHS.

Pride and Spirit in Action

Activities inject into a year a myriad of memories. Victories and defeats, games and parties, concerts and speeches – these reflect good times, fun times, thoughtful times. Athletes meeting – each with desire to win – possessing pure enjoyment of physical activity, stimulation of competition, satisfaction of achievement . . . Dedicated participants and cheering spectators – gripped by tensions, hope – drawn together by common goals.

Organizations enhance SHS, giving it pride and spirit. Groups strive toward goals of service. Members realize personal gains of sacrifice, friendship, accomplishment, and contribution.

To the Blue, To the Gold

Here's a toast to Stephenville High,
We her praises ever sing,
Stand and cheer her name once again;
Loudly may the echoes ring.

Fill a glass for happy times,
Sons and daughters ever true,
Always holding deep in loyal hearts
The Spirit of the Gold and Blue.

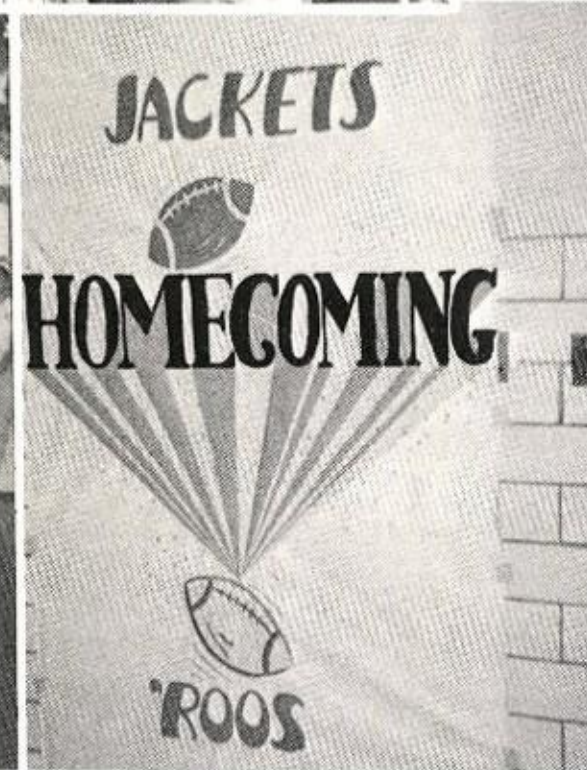

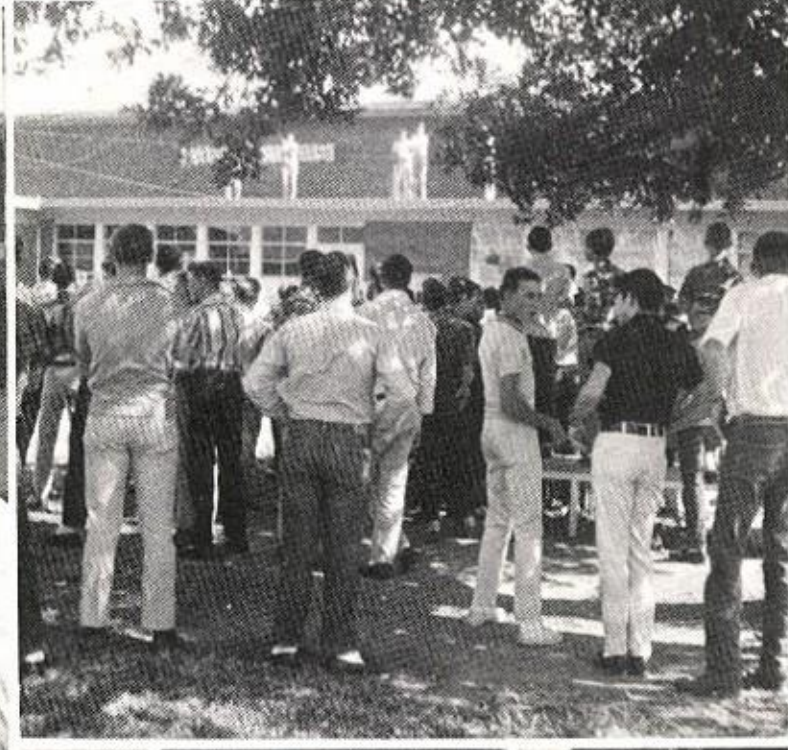

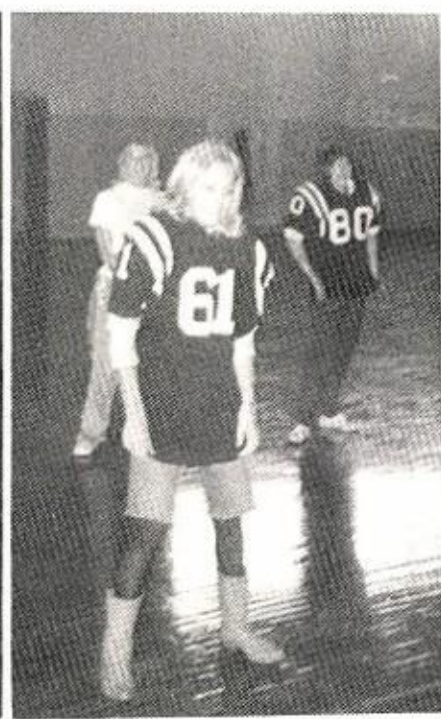

To the Blue – To the Gold –
To our school and its glorious history;
To our faith – To our zeal –
To the days we remember so joyfully.

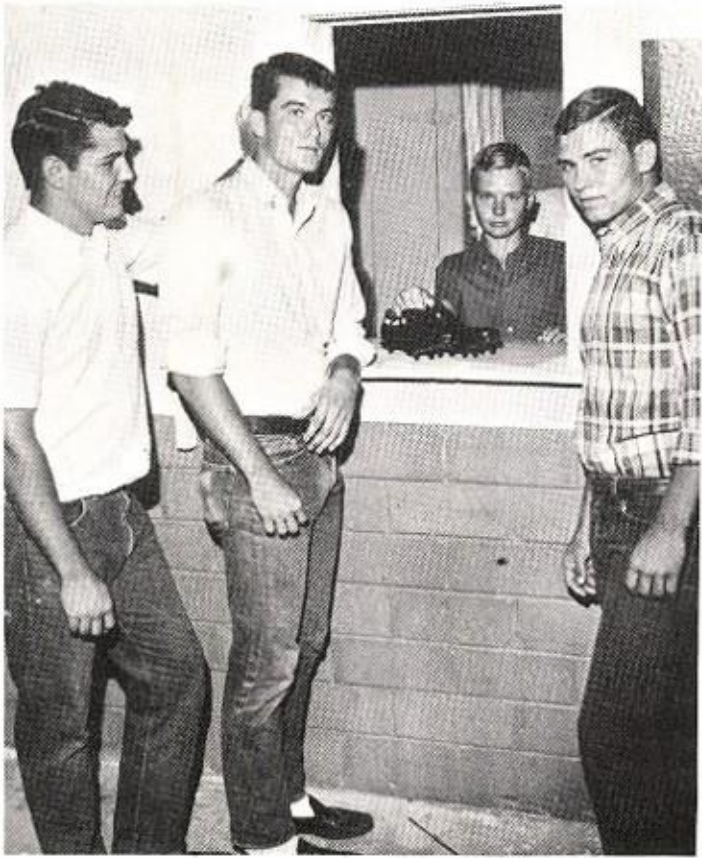

To the Blue – To the Gold –
May we carry our banner to victory;
To our hopes – to our dreams –
To the world we shall make ours some day.

Here's to all our glorious past,
Here's to our victories won –
Here's to glorious future years.
For our fame has just begun.

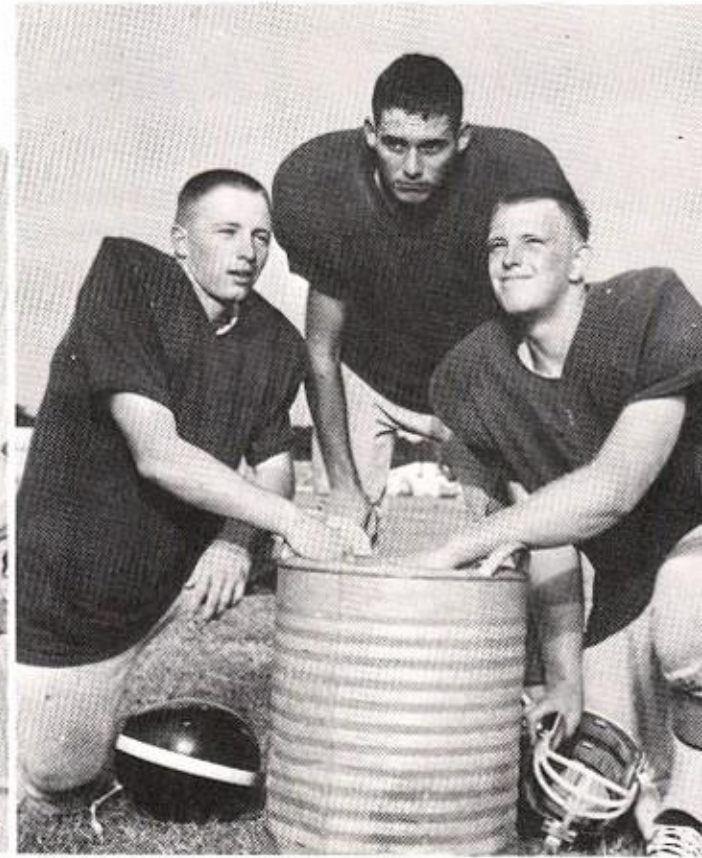

Fill a glass for happy times,
Sons and daughters ever true,
Always holding deep in loyal hearts
The Spirit of the Gold and Blue.

Jacket Pride...

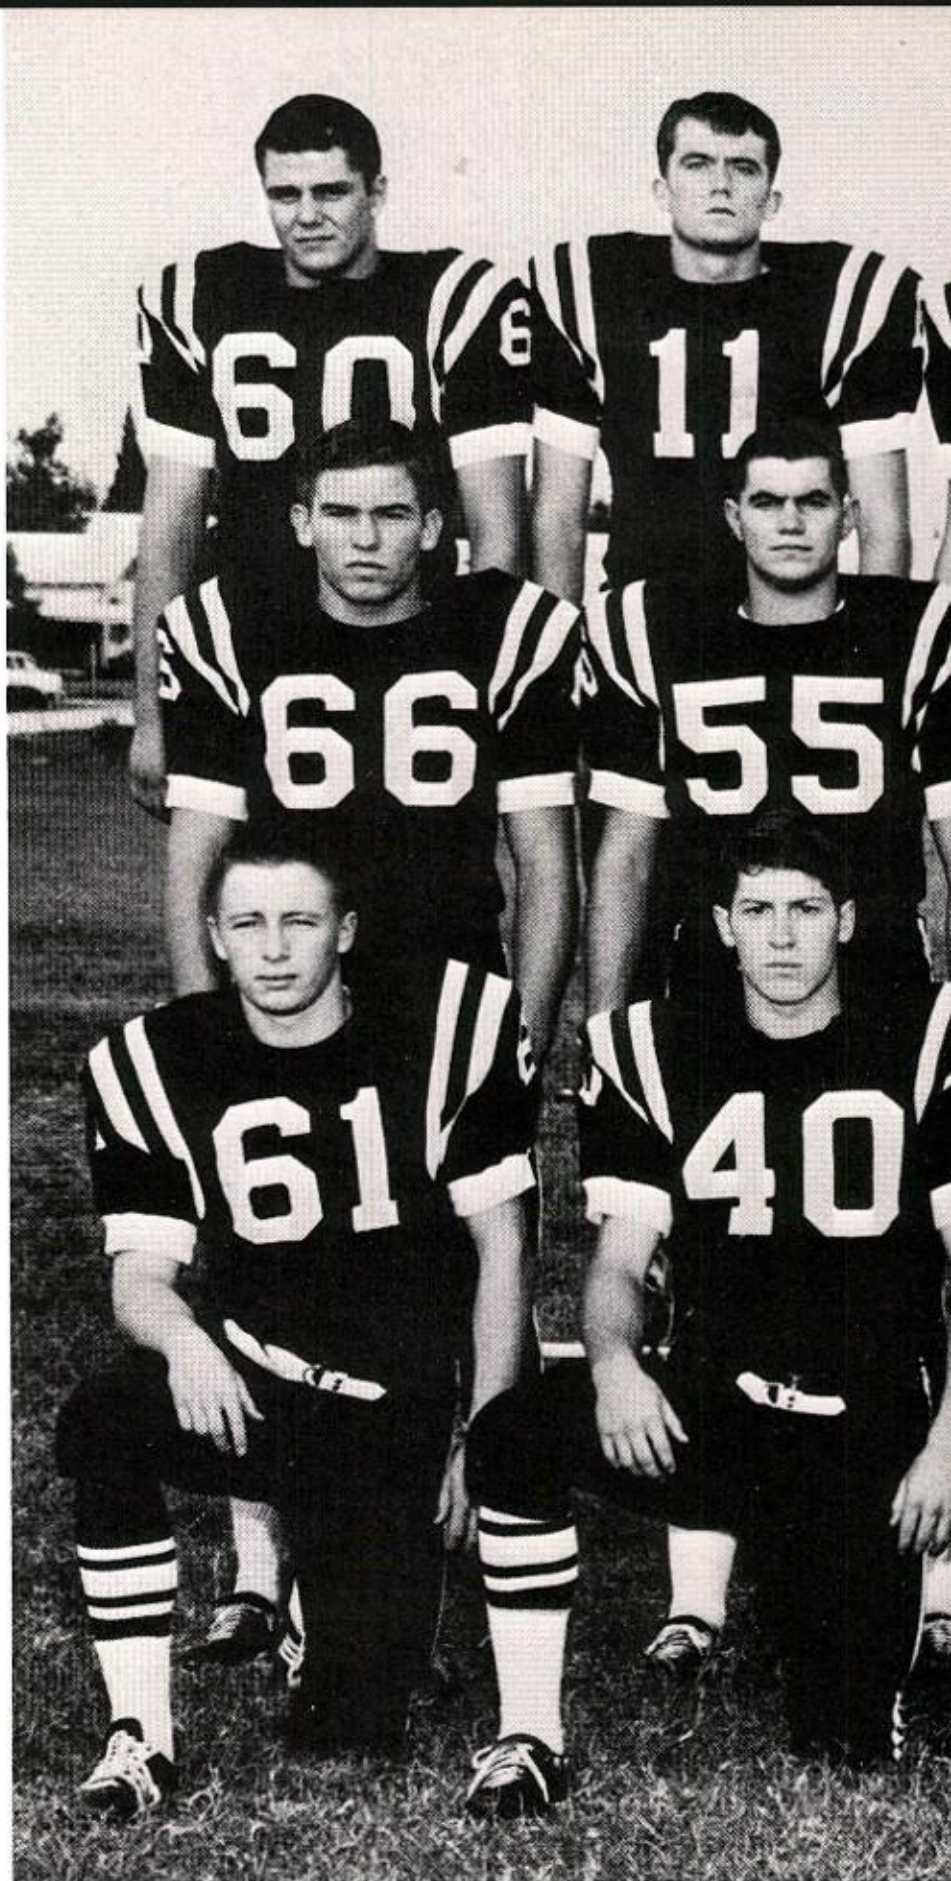

7-3 Season

Instilled with traditional SHS pride and spirit, the 1966 Jacket Varsity with fifteen returning lettermen enthusiastically exhibit team effort to post for head coach Kenneth Scott a 7-3 season record, the same as that of his '63 Jacket team and the best since 1963.

Assisting Coach Ken Scott in guiding the athletic fortunes of the Jackets are coaches Bill Keeney, Sam Taylor, and two newcomers to SHS, backfield coach Barry Johncour and line coach Don Davis.

In pre-season scrimmages, the Jackets clip Graham, only to bow to Hamilton. Then in early season practice games while "shel-lacking" Duncanville, the Jackets lost to two state-ranked foes, the Granbury Pirates and the Brownwood Lions. In district play the Jackets, after losing an early battle to Mineral Wells, remain in contention for a piece of the crown by upsetting Weatherford to give SHS the sweet taste of a Homecoming victory. Their title dreams disappear only when Weatherford fails to hold Mineral Wells in their final clash.

The Jackets finish a respectable second in district competition. Sixteen senior Jackets can remember a good last year as 5-AAA statistics show SHS having the most productive offense, 276 points. Also eight players are named to the All-District Team while six others receive honorable mention. Mike Watkins, Gary Chandler, and Randy Wood receive honorable mention for All-State, and Dale Brock ties for fourth in Schoolboy AAA scoring.

"Pound for pound, Jim is the toughest man on our line," thinks Coach Ken Scott as he helps the injured Jacket leave Grapevine's gridiron.

Regional Medalist Ed Brooks measures the distance to state honors.

Not only does the SHS Jacket Golf Team repeat as District Champs, but Ed Brooks also repeats as District Medalist and Coach Bill Keeney takes top honors in competition among district coaches. Aiming toward higher honors, the Stinger teammates come out on top in Regional competition and advance to the State Meet. Finding Austin's Morris Williams Golf Course a tough challenge, the Jackets take third place behind defending state AAA champs, the Seguin Matadors, and Beaumont Forest Park.

"Sound of Music,"

Band perks up pep rally spirit.

Sweetheart Jackie receives traditional gift, flowers, and kiss.

Residents in the area hear Band music floating across the practice field early in the late August dawn's early light as the drum major's sharp whistle calls members to attention. The director's voice thunders into the microphone although he is as sleepy as anyone. Trombones slide off drowsy shoulders, but players soon learn to stay alert during vital marching practice. The Jacket Band gets an "A" rating for "Applause" and "Appreciation" in "Autumn."

SHS drum major and majorettes are a spirited preface to every parade and at each half-time presented. Helping to synchronize the movements of the marching band, Drum Major Gary Blasingame adds dignity to all performances. The majorettes majestically step across the football field, leading the band in a spirited march. Their carefully coordinated routines are the result of many hours spent in training and practice.

SHS members of the All-District, All-Regional and Area Bands are Muffin Morton, Richard Leeth, Paul Pendleton and Jimmy Perry. The All-District and All-Regional Bands also include Jeanette Alsup, Mike Cedars, Peter Grant, Janie Harwell and Bruce McNellie. Also Gary Blasingame makes the All-Regional Band, and Mary Jo Chandler, Jerri Payne, David Hancock, Terry Price and Timmy Thompson the All-District.

Participation at SHS,

FFA activities at SHS enrich the vocational agriculture program involving ninety-two boys. Encouraging the members in "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, and living to serve," are club advisors, Rex Stephens and Bill Hailey. To give their students experience beyond the classroom scope through community services, co-operative activities and farming programs is their purpose.

Co-op Ag, offered this year for the first time at SHS, permits participating students to learn and earn by attending classes half a day and working in a related business half a day. At right, Co-op Ag students are seen inspecting a dairy barn.

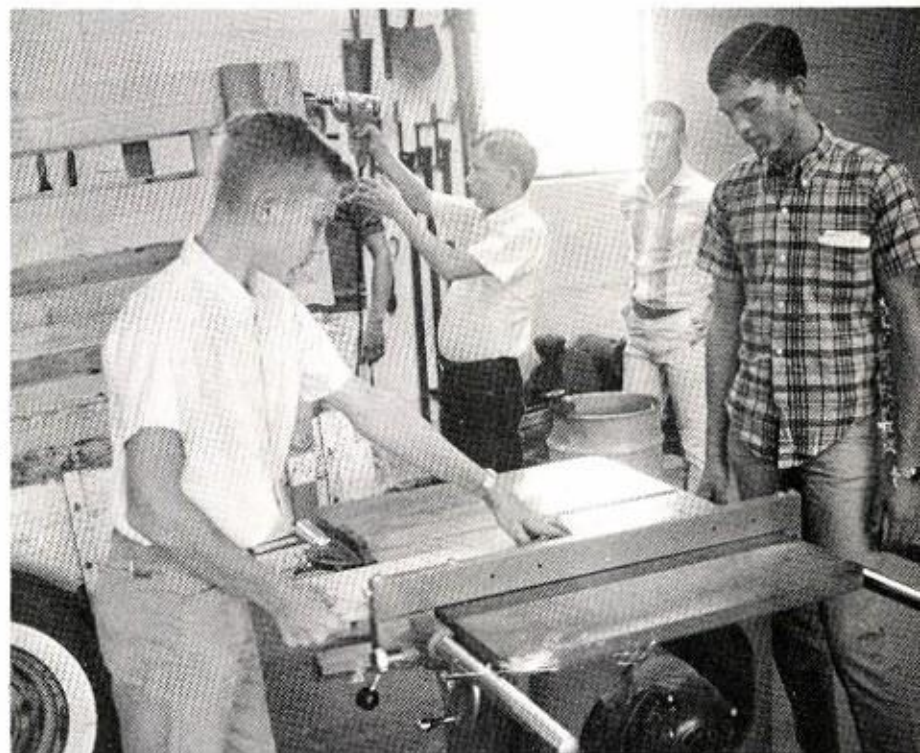

Ag I boys learn to use hand tools.

Ag IV boys check a small gasoline engine.

Ag III boys practice welding.

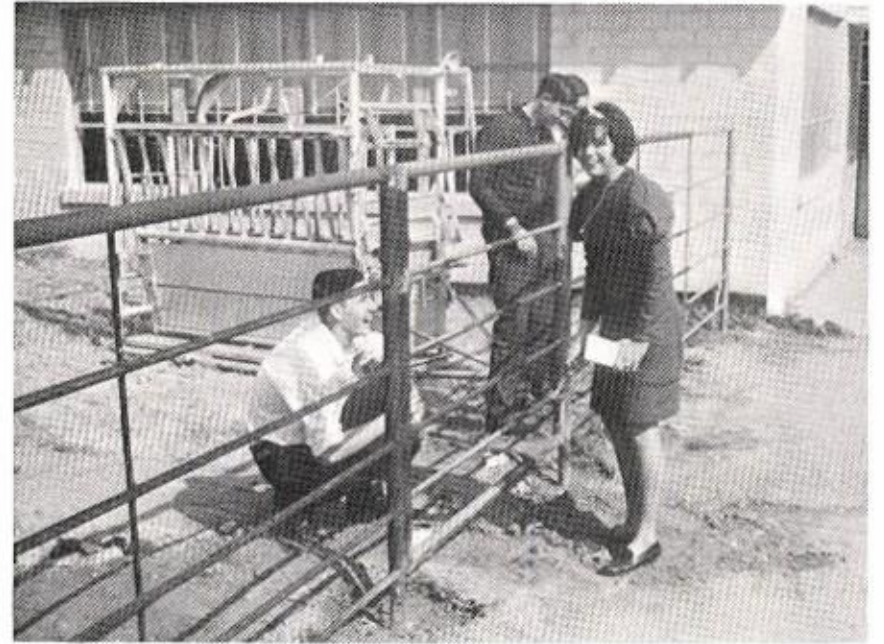

Ag II boys learn to use power tools.

AG III boys visit local swine farm.

Learn Practical

Ag boys paint new fence.

Dent Bills loads Gus.

Mr. Hailey and Mr. Stevens demonstrate hoof trimming.

Randy Golightly grooms his steer for the show.

Ag class inspects "Tractor of Tomorrow."

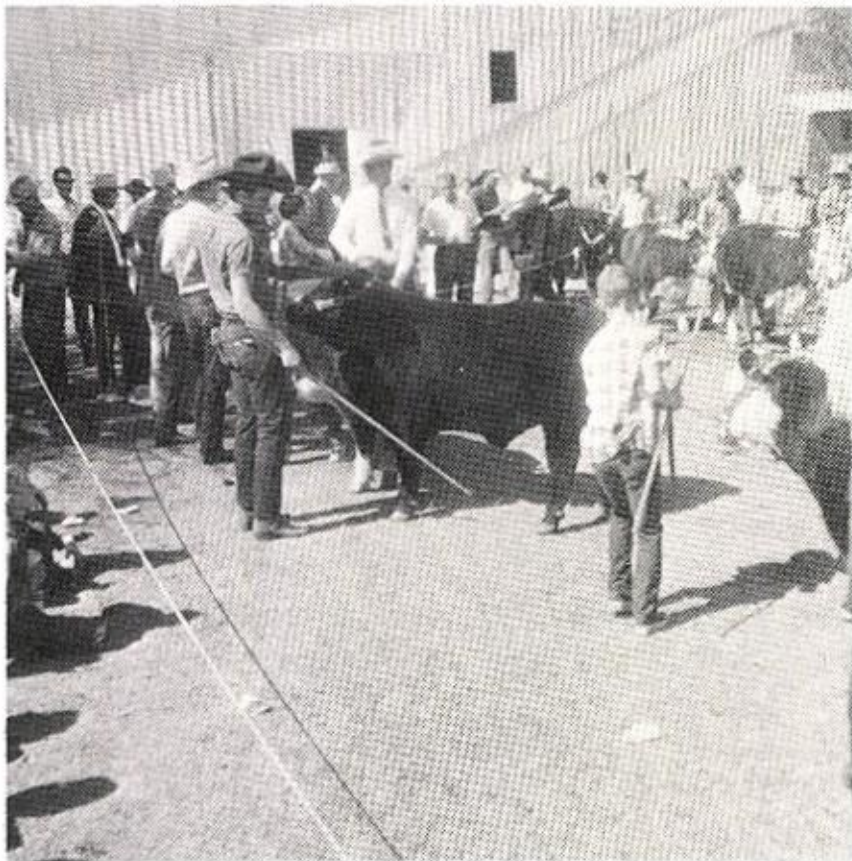

Skills to Make Everyday Life Easier

Ronnie shows his dairy heifer.

Ag boys show fat barrow class.

Judge places calves at local show.

Young Farmers weigh in show calves.

Future Homemakers assist Young Homemakers in making candy to send to Erath County boys in the service.

FHA Activities Are Rewarding

Mrs. Davis and Sandy Bills discuss Sandy's plans for obtaining a junior degree.

Lou Greenway presents FHA beau, Gary Blasingame, with an FHA key ring.

Future Homemakers Learn How Now

Mary Anne Yarbrough demonstrates the procedure for making paper flowers to the fifth period Homemaking I class.

Pat Myers, president of the fourth period Homemaking I FHA unit, conducts the opening ceremony.

Lou "raps" for attention and invites guests in to 'Round the World dinner.

Mary Holder and Linda Daniels "sing for their supper" and for the entertainment of guests.

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine

Second period Homemaking I members are (Row One) Vickie Bills, Frankie Carr, Vicki Lowry, Ann Powell, (Row Two) Patty Purvis, Nancy Hancock, and Diane Smith.

Mrs. Greenway demonstrates the proper way to line a dress for fifth period Homemaking II students - Diane Oakes, Barbara Schrimsher, Judi Houston, Linda Daniels, and Connie Cragwall.

Judy Wyly, Vivian Lee, Mrs. Greenway, Sharon Stewart, and Janie Arendt reupholster a chair for the new FHA dressing room.

Eager Freshmen - (Row One) Cathy Brandon, Kerry Goodman, Deana Koonsman, Deborah Pipes, Martha Melton, (Row Two) Laura Fanning, Debbie Hooks, Pam Sharp, Susan Eure, Sally Justice, and Louann Cranford - learn the fundamental steps of sewing.

Stephenville High's Future Teachers, under the guidance of Miss Gwen Williams, begin active club work early in the fall. On October 25 officers are installed and new members initiated.

Twenty-three members attend District Convention in Mason, but only thirteen earn enough points to attend the State Convention in San Antonio.

Projects during the year include bake sales and sale of memory books to finance club activities. In the last assembly of the year, seven seniors receive recognition for active membership.

FTA members are (Row One) Sandy Chew, De De Everett, Debbie Rhodes, Sally Justice, Ann Powell, Rhonda Adams, Deana Koonsman, Ellen Skipper, John Pigott, (Row Two) Lynda Green, Karen Dunn, Ann Strawhorn, Peggy Alexander, Joan Miller, Darla Smith, Teresa McCollum, Brad Allen, (Row Three) Judy Carruth, Frances Hill, Annalynn Skipper, Barbara Shipp, Tinker Piper, Judi Houston, Vivian Lee, Dwain Weems, (Row Four) Johanna Green, Suzan Price, Len Johnson, David Yates, Timmy Thompson, David Daniell, Freddia Trammell, Gloria Hyde, and Bob Scott.

The Jacket camera focuses (above) on busy FTA'ers working on the SHS scrapbook an annual service project. Several meetings with much work in assembly-line fashion are necessary to compile the year's news clippings in this attractive scrapbook.

Nosy Newshounds Keep SHS in the Know

"Ghost writer" - Kathy Slaten

Typist - Sue Bluethman

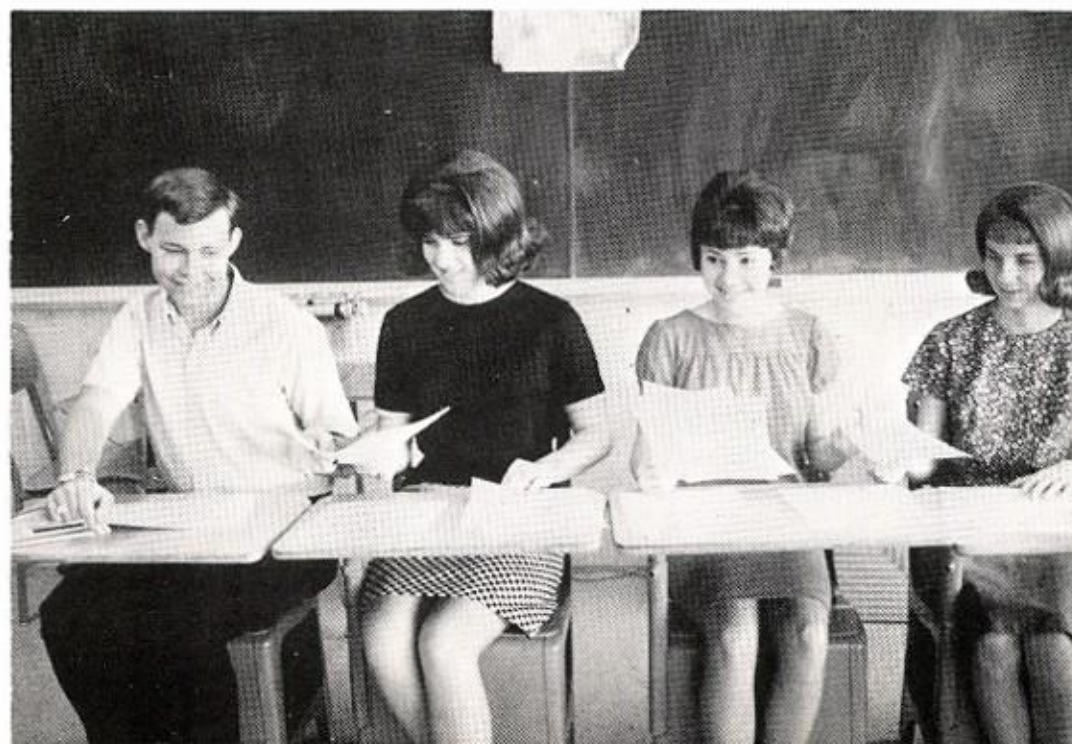

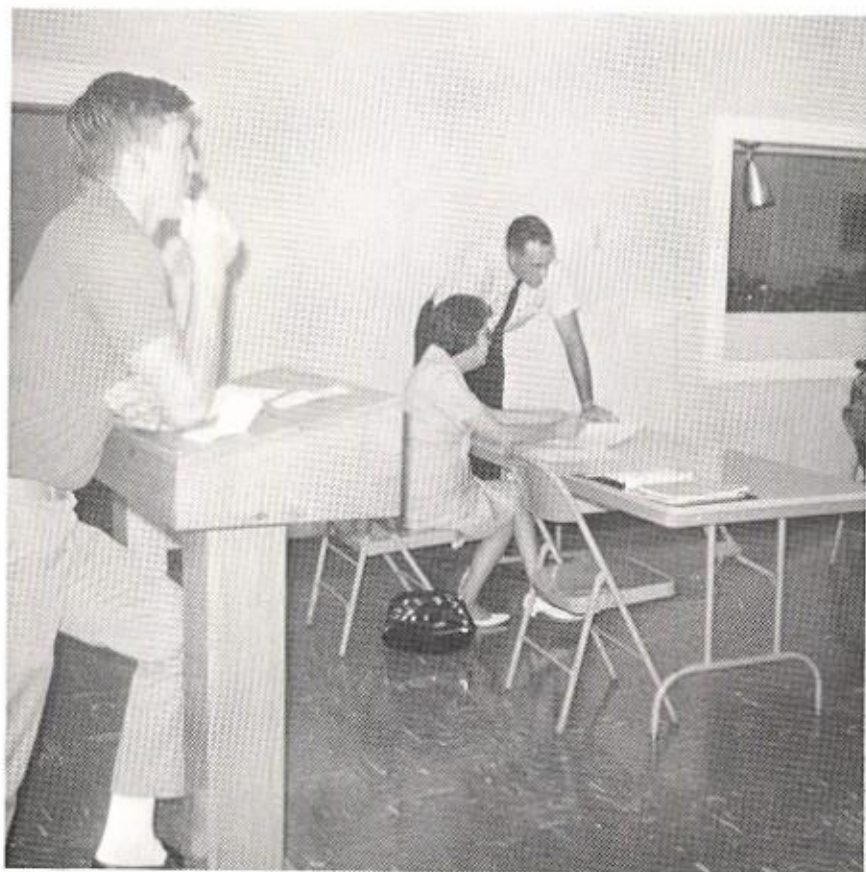

Artist and errand boy - David Yates

Duplicator - Cherry Overman

These busy four Spanish clubbers - David Yates, Sue Bluethman, Kathy Slaten, and Cherry Overman - form an assembly line to put together the "fresh-off-the-press" STINGER. Directed by Las Chaquetas sponsor, Mrs. Lillie Ruth Laird, they take turns editing our school paper. The STINGER reports past, present, and future SHS activities.

Nolan Brandt, chosen last spring to head SHS student body, presides as council members elect officers for the year.

Student Council Has Hand in Most Goings-On

Adhering to the ideal of personal freedom through personal responsibility, the Student Council strives to promote pride and spirit that will give solidarity and strength to the individual student as well as to the overall school. The Council consists of the president elected by the entire student body, each class president and three boy and three girl representatives from each class, and last year's state convention delegates. In an early fall meeting the council under the guidance of sponsors, Mrs. Emma Kate Jackson and Mr. Bill Hailey, elects officers from its membership. The group operates Rec Room concession sales, sponsors Homecoming activities and school tourney, helps to plan assemblies and serves as a link between students and administration.

Student Council Sponsors Music, Fun, Refreshment—A Pleasing Combination

S H S Christmas Spirit—Interest,

Participation, And Enjoyment...

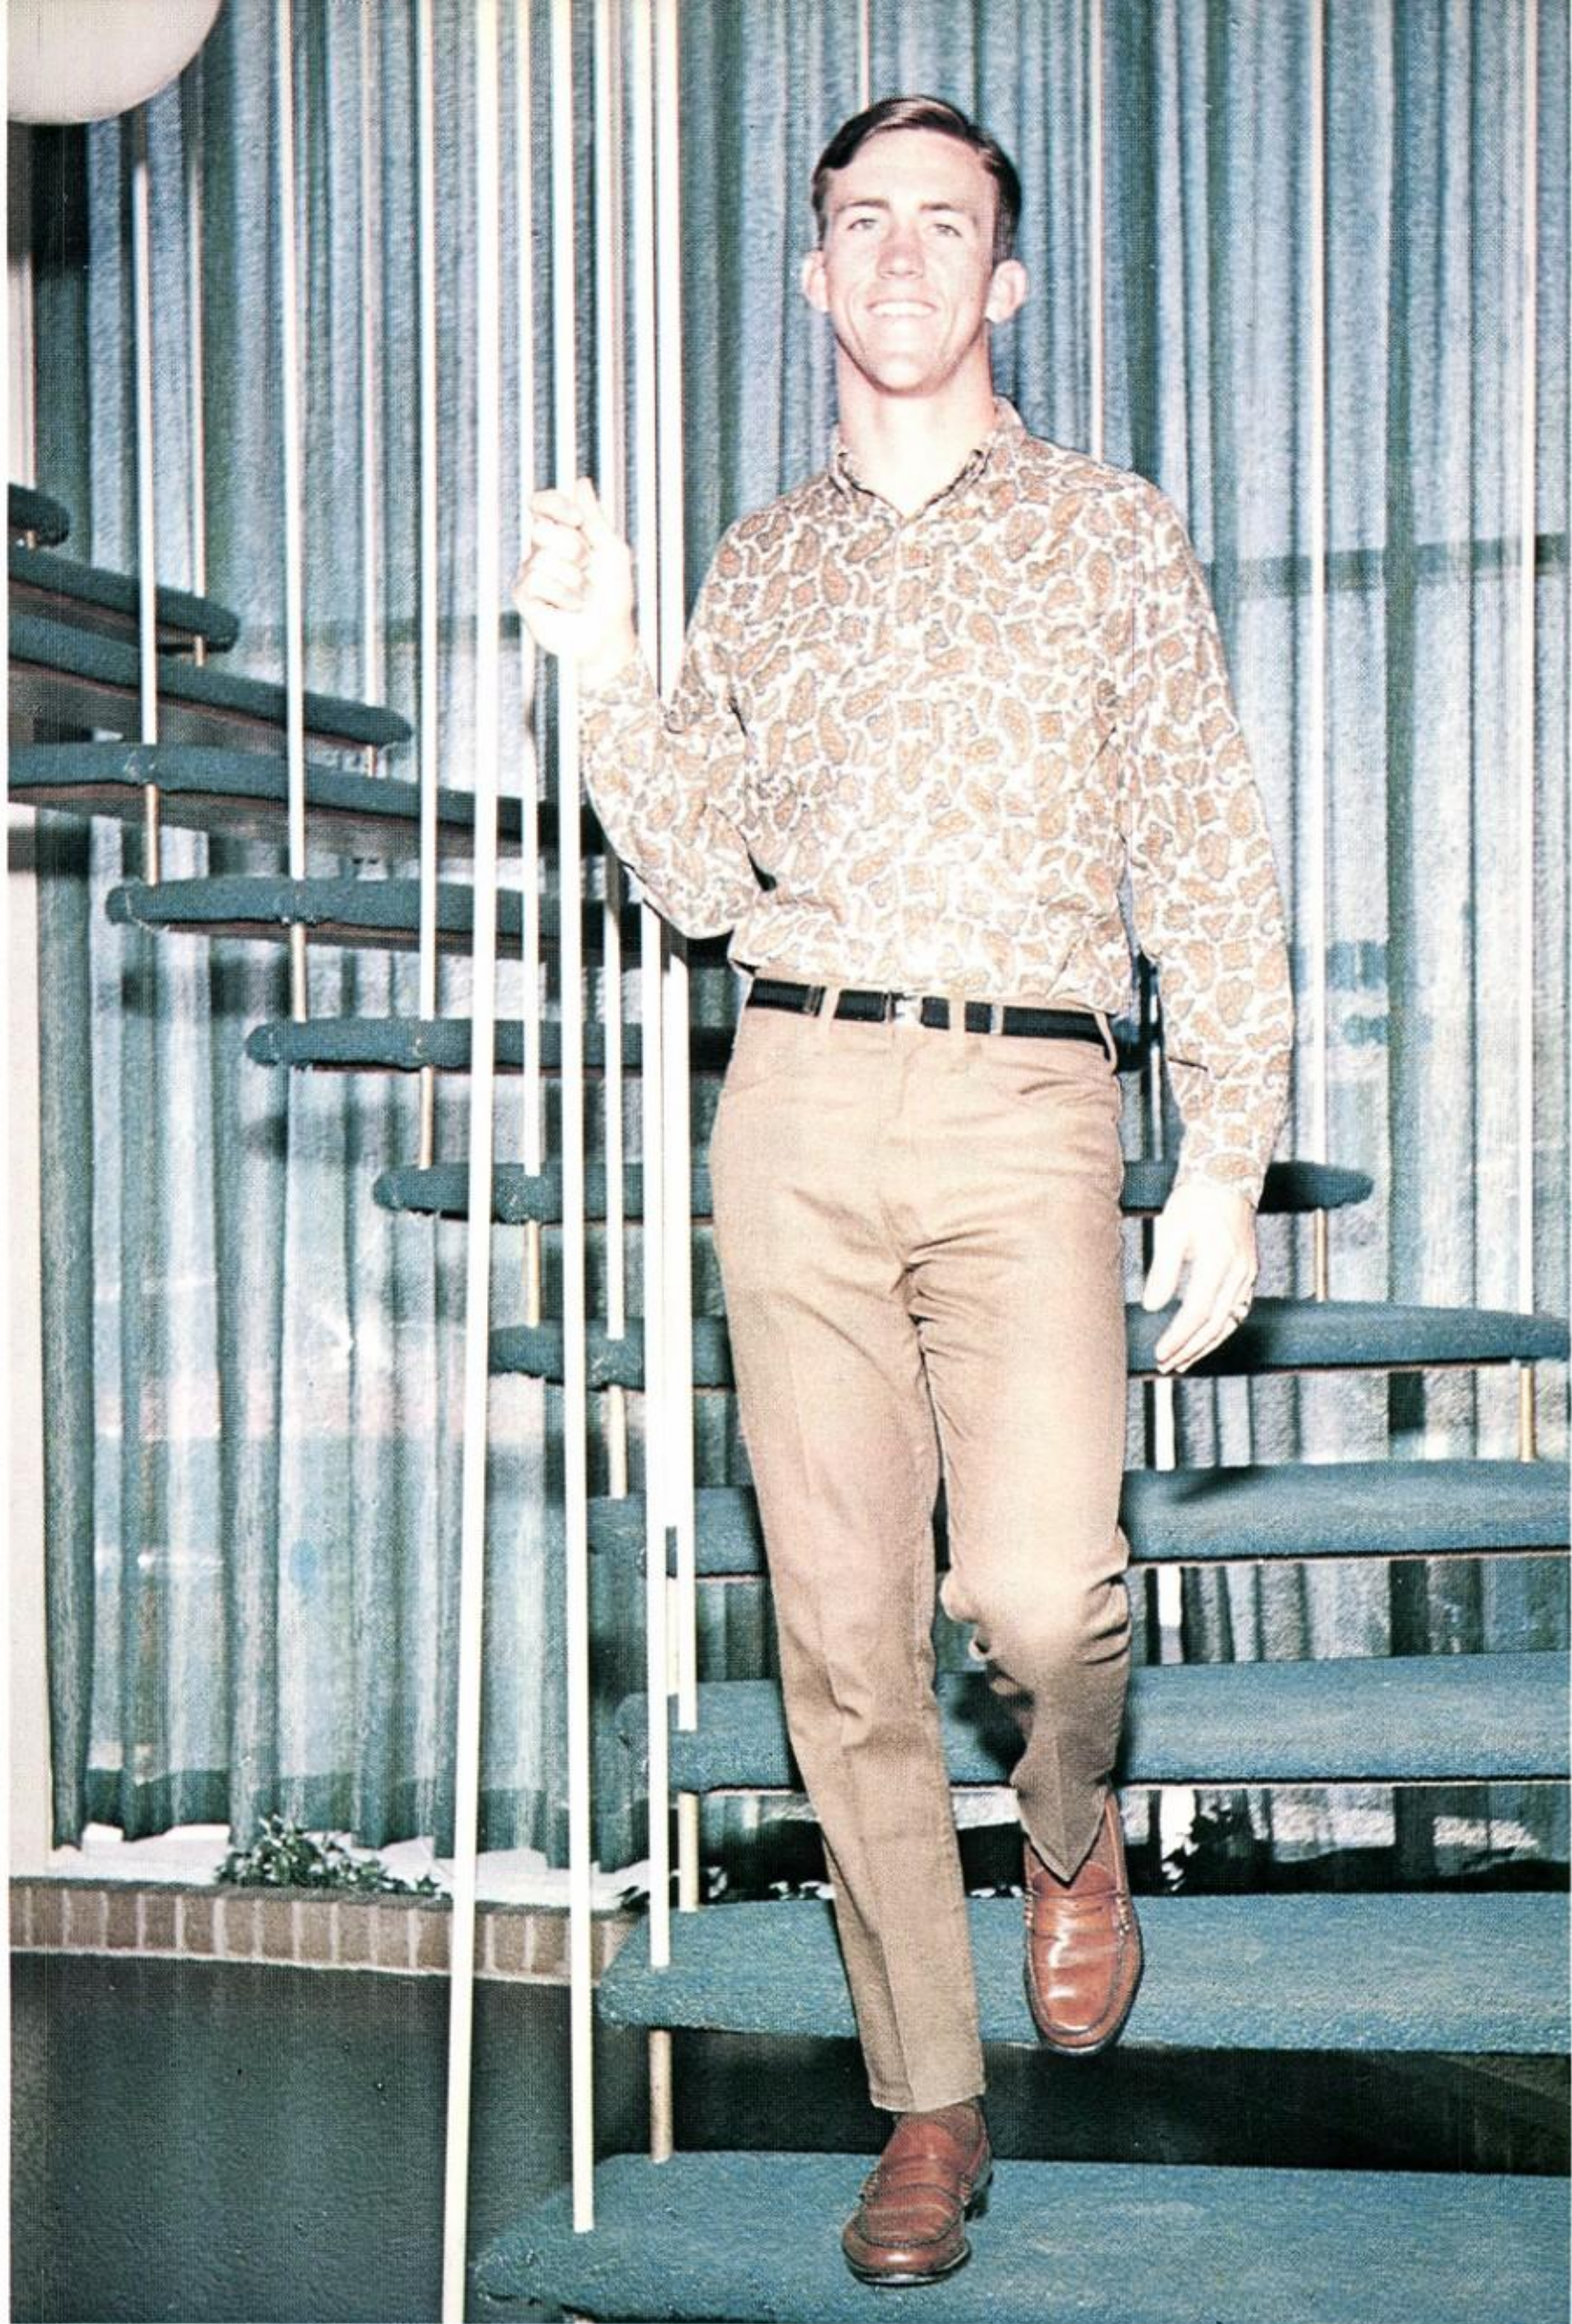

Pride and Spirit in Favorites

During '67 Jacket sales in early fall from slates of six Miss Jacket nominees and four Mr. Jacket nominees, student buyers name Molly Wofford, Miss Jacket and David Stafford Mr. Jacket. Announcement of this honor is reserved for the Annual Scribble Party in August.

Then in February, Half Past 'Teen, an entertaining comedy directed by Mrs. Christine Whyburn, sets the scene for Sam Bullitt's revealing, with the aid of his inventive nephew Jim's computer, the identity of Favorites chosen to reflect SHS pride and spirit.

Pride and Spirit in Support

Written advertisement is one of the best methods of making products known to the public. Through the gracious advertisement of the Stephenville businessmen, THE JACKET, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY-SEVEN, presents SHS Pride and Spirit.

Both the merchants and the annual staff profit by such advertising. The businessmen are benefited because their products and service are on display to thousands of people, and THE JACKET is publicized and supported.

Consistent advertisement and loyal support are essential parts of THE JACKET. Through loyal advertising in THE JACKET, community businessmen form their own SHS booster club. To these merchants who support SHS, a Jacket Thanks for being a great SHS booster club.
